Celebrate Valentine's Day Early at Guinness, Chocolate & Bluegrass Event

MILWAUKEE (January 17, 2019) – With Valentine's Day just around the corner, CelticMKE is bringing back their Guinness & Chocolate event on Friday, February 8, at the CelticMKE Center, located in Wauwatosa, Wis.

In association with Guinness, this event will kick off with chocolate pairings to a variety of Guinness beers, including Harp and Smithwick's, guided by Jimmy Callahan, a Guinness Brewery Ambassador. He will also offer some history on the Irish originated beer and tips on how to know which chocolates pair well with which beers.

And to cap it all off, the Chicago-based bluegrass group, Henhouse Prowlers will perform. They are an award-winning, high energy quartet with electrifying performances that give audiences a true sense of how much they love what they do.

A limited number of pre-sale tickets are available for only $15. For more details and to purchase tickets, visit CelticMKE's website at celticmke.com. This event sold out in 2018, so be sure to get your tickets in advance. This event is for adults 21 and over only.

About CelticMKE

Through original programming and events, CelticMKE aims to preserve, promote and celebrate all aspects of Irish, Irish American and Celtic cultures, and to instill an appreciation of these cultures in current and future generations. CelticMKE produces the world-renowned Milwaukee Irish Fest, August 15-18, 2019, along with a variety of Celtic-themed classes, lectures, concerts and cultural heritage projects.
